

IMPLANT COLOR CODING

Each package is designed with a number of indications that ensure fast and reliable product identification:

- Lid color indication - five colors represent different diameters: purple, white, red, blue, and green.
- The label on the tube's lid indicates the implant's diameter.
- A product characterization label is positioned outside the implant's outer tube.